Ramon – I am working on getting the burn info entered for yesterday. Will send something over as soon as I have that done. I will also make a note to provide it every other day for now, and let me know if you need anything else.

Thanks,

Lisa

Hi Melissa,

I just received another request 1900-55 update request. It seems that this is going to be an on-going request. That being the case. Would it possible to get a regular update? Let at least every other day.

Thanks,
